

Dear Latin teachers/Sponsors,

You and your Chapter are invited to the 2019 SCJCL Spring Forum at Trinity-Byrnes Collegiate School (TBCS). We are very excited to have you at our school!

In this packet, you will find everything you will need to have an amazing Spring Forum!

*** Reminder: If you did not pay (yet) your Chapter's dues (State and National), it is time to do it, or your Chapter will not be allowed to compete at the Spring Forum. I will check on Friday, March 15th if chapters are registered.

*** Reminder: The deadline for the SCJCL Spring Forum registration, dues and officers' application is Friday, February 19th.

*** The theme of the SCJCL Spring Forum will be:

"Apes non sunt solitaria natura." (Varro De Agri Cultura 3.16)

"Bees are not of a solitary nature."

*** NEW!!! For a modest amount of money, Latin students will be allowed to pie the State Officers, the Sponsors (if they want to), and the State Chair. The money will be used for the NJCL Convention 2019.

*** SCJCL Fundraiser: Our SCJCL 2nd V.P. (Stella Stulchak - Wando) will collect cans of food that would be distributed later in Charleston. All Latin students will be asked to bring 1, 2 or more cans of food at the Spring Forum. This fundraiser will be a competition between schools. There will be a surprise for the winner of the contest!

*** Spring Forum Activities: There will be a section MS (Latin 1a) and a section HS (Latin 1b/Latin 1, Latin 2 and Advanced) for most of the tests, Certamen, Olympika and Chariot Race.

*** Driving Directions.

Trinity-Byrnes Collegiate School is situated at 5001, Hoffmeyer Road, Darlington, SC 29532.

TBCS Latin students will guide you from the gate to the parking places.

*** Schedule of the day: will be provided later.

*** If you do not have student(s) wishing to apply for SJCL Office:

Pages 3 to 8 should be filled and mailed with list of students and check OR pages 3 to 8 should be filled online and check should be mailed.

If you have student(s) wishing to apply for SCJCL Office:

Pages 3 to 10 should be filled and mailed with list of students and check OR pages 3 to 11 should be filled online and check should be mailed.

*** A copy of the SCJCL new Constitution (to be approved) is attached to the packet. Please, go to our website (www.southcarolinajcl.com) to compare with our actual Constitution.

Thank you very much!

LATIN 1b/1 GRAMMAR

A test on Latin grammar, syntax, and forms: the four conjugations of verbs in the six tenses, active and passive, indicative and imperative. Three declensions of nouns and adjectives (only the positive degree of adjectives). All pronouns except the indefinite. Adverbs in the positive degree. The six tenses of sum, possum, and other compounds. The present active and passive infinitive and the use of the complementary infinitive. Case functions: Nominative—subject, predicate nominative. Genitive—possession, description, partitive. Dative—indirect object, with special adjectives and verbs. Accusative—direct object, object of preposition, place to which, extent of time and space. Ablative—location, means, accompaniment, manner, agent, separation, time when and within which. Vocative—direct address.

LATIN II GRAMMAR

A test on Latin grammar, syntax, and forms: the four conjugations of verbs in all forms of the indicative, imperative, and subjunctive moods and in all forms on infinitives and participles. All forms of deponent verbs, impersonal and irregular verbs (eo, fero, volo, nolo, fio, inquam, malo, sum, and possum). Five declensions of nouns. Three declensions of adjectives in positive, comparative, and superlative degrees. Adverbs in the third degrees. All pronouns. All the basic case functions traditionally included in first and second year Latin texts. Subjective, objective, and complementary infinitives and the infinitive in indirect statements. Circumstantial and descriptive participles. Ablative absolute. Basic functions of the subjunctive mood, e.g., hortatory, purpose, indirect command, indirect question, cum clauses, condition, fearing clauses, relative clauses of characteristic and purpose. Gerund, gerundive, and supine.

ADVANCED LATIN GRAMMAR

Reading for comprehension; figures of speech: forms grammar, and syntax, especially the uses of participles, infinitives and the subjunctive. Readings are selected from Cicero and Virgil.

MYTHOLOGY

A test on Greek and Roman myths. Sources: Edith Hamilton, Mythology; Bullfinch Mythology; other suitable books on Greek and Roman mythology.

CLASSICAL ARTS

The purpose of this contest is for students to gain an understanding of classical times through the art of the period.

The Art of Greece and Rome by Susan Woodford (ISBN 0521540372)

The Oxford History of Classical Art by John Boardman (ISBN 0192853376)

ACADEMIC TESTING RULES

1. Students must bring a #2 pencil to use for testing. Answer sheets are machine scored.
2. Students are to write both name and school number on the answer sheets. The name of test being taken must appear on the answer sheet.
3. Any student currently enrolled in a Latin course may take any one of the following tests: Mottoes, Mythology, Roman History, Daily Life.
4. Latin 1a Grammar, Vocabulary 1a, and Derivatives 1 are open to students who are currently enrolled in Latin 1a.
5. Latin 1 Grammar, Vocabulary 1, and Derivatives 1 are open to students who are currently enrolled in Latin 1b/1.
6. Latin 2 Grammar, Vocabulary 2, and Derivatives 2 are open to students who are currently enrolled in Latin 2.
7. Advanced Latin Grammar, Advanced Vocabulary and Advanced Derivatives are open to students who are in Latin 3 and above.

8. Each test will consist of 50 multiple choice questions which will be answered on an answer sheet.

2) CERTAMEN

A team of four students from one school competes in a battle of the brains against teams from other schools. Questions for the Certamen come from all areas for which written tests are offered.

CERTAMEN RULES

1. There is one moderator, one timekeeper, and one scorekeeper.
2. A round consists of 10 toss-up questions and one bonus question for each correctly answered tossup question.
3. Each round has a time limit of 10 minutes.
4. The person who presses the buzzer first must answer a toss-up question without consultation with the other team members and must begin to answer within five seconds.
5. A toss-up question is worth 10 points.
6. If a toss-up question is interrupted by a buzzer, the person pressing the buzzer must offer an answer without hearing the rest of the question. If the answer offered is incorrect, the question is repeated once in its entirety for the opposing teams to answer.
7. When a member of a team correctly answers a toss-up question, the moderator reads a bonus question for the team. The team may confer for 15 seconds after which the team captain must begin the answer.
8. A bonus question is worth 10 points.
9. If a toss-up question has been asked and no one has signaled to answer, the moderator may repeat the question upon the request of any contestant.
10. If no one signals to answer a toss-up question within 30 seconds, the moderator asks the next toss-up question.
11. Any member who is unable to hear the moderator should interrupt him immediately. The moderator will stop, and when the acoustical problems have been solved, he will start the question from the beginning.
12. If there is a tie at the end of a round, the moderator asks questions until the tie is broken.
13. The moderator has the final authority in judging all aspects of the Certamen and settling any disputes which arise.

3) CREATIVE ARTS CONTESTS

DRAMATIC INTERPRETATION.

Dramatic Interpretation Scoring Rules:

Participants in the Dramatic Interpretation Contest must compete on the level of Latin last completed. They are requested to have memorized their passages thoroughly prior to their attendance at the Forum.

Presentation will be judged on the criteria listed below. The numbers listed in parentheses represent the point value which will be used in judging the advanced level poetry entries.

Latin Oratory Scoring Rules: Contestants are requested to have memorized their passages thoroughly prior to their attendance at the Forum.

Judges will use the following criteria:

Points

Memorization	25
Pronunciation	15
Audience Contact	15
Natural Gestures and Oratorical Style	15
Enunciation and Voice Control	15
Phraseology and Interpretation of Passage	15
Total	100

ENGLISH ORATORY

Contestants must write an original English oratory. The style should be similar to that of a classical orator. The subject is the theme of the convention:

“Apes non sunt solitaria natura.” (Varro De Agri Cultura 3.16)

“Bees are not of a solitary nature.”

There will be three divisions, lower (grade 7/8 and 9), middle (grade 10) and upper (grades 11 and 12). The student’s oration should be three (3) minutes in length; a contestant will be penalized 5 points if his speech is less than 2 minutes and 45 seconds or more than 3 minutes and 15 seconds in length (including introduction).

English Oratory Scoring Rules: Participants in English Oratory are requested to have memorized their passages thoroughly prior to their attendance at the convention. Judges will use the following criteria:

Points
Introduction	5
Body of Oration	20
Conclusion	5
Delivery	20
Originality	10
Memorization	15
Adherence to Theme and Use of Classics	15

TOTAL POINTS	100

SIGHT READING

Contestants will be given a brief selection in Latin appropriate to the year of study enrolled: Level 1/2 and 1, Level II, Advanced Level-Prose, or Advanced Level-Poetry. They will be given a 15 minutes preparation period in which a dictionary, provided by the contestants themselves, may be used. Macrons will be provided on the selections to indicate long vowels. The students may make notes on the selections; no other scrap paper is allowed. However, at the end of the preparation period, the passages and dictionaries will be collected; the contestants will be given an unmarked passage to use as they appear before the judges. The students will be expected to read the passage aloud in Latin.

Sight Reading Scoring Rules:

Each contestant will be judged using a rating of 5-4-3-2-1 for confidence, continuity, phrasing, word accent, vowels, syllabication, consonant quality, performance, elisions (poetry only), and scansion (poetry only). Both Classical and Liturgical pronunciations are acceptable, but the contestant must inform the judges before performing if Liturgical pronunciation will be used.

COSTUME

Girl's Costume: Tullia (Minor)

Boy's Costume: Lucius Tarquinius Superbus

Couple's Costume: Numa Pompilius and Egeria

Costume Scoring Rules:

<https://www.njcl.org/Portals/1/Costume%20Contest%20Rules%20%282%29.pdf>

1. The contestant will be expected to make a BRIEF statement about the costume and how it relates to the character.

2. The contestant must have knowledge of Roman or Greek clothing style and a broad knowledge of the character represented.
3. The contestant should be prepared to speak about the color, style, props, etc. selected for his/her costume.
4. The entrant must make his/her own costume. Creativity will include the entrant's imaginative use of materials to make props and costume; it will NOT be based on the oral presentation.
5. Cost: It is recommended that the cost of the costume not exceed $50.00, excluding tax. For couples, this is $50.00 per person. The value of all items, including borrowed items, shoes, jewelry, etc. should be included in the $50.00 limit. From 2018 National Convention, participants do not need to show a receipt.

Points

Authenticity	40 points
Neatness	24 points
Attractiveness	10 points
Craftsmanship	18 points
Creativity	8 points
TOTAL:	100 points
